

Welcome to Wixyleaks, I do hope you enjoy your stay.

I'm sure if you've ventured into my world that you are either someone with an open mind looking to discover something not discussed in the MSM, or a troll looking to score a cheap point. Either way, good luck to you.

I write about whatever I feel like at the time, although usually it tends to be politics... However I occasionally write about other stuff in a vain attempt to not seem like a boring bastard and show the world that I do have a vague interest in something non-political.

It will be obvious to all that I have a particular interest in animal welfare, and especially puppy factories, and given my partner is the founder of Oscar's Law needless to say I have a fair bit of exposure on the matter.

I am thrilled to talk with people who will listen, and more than willing to expose those on soapboxes who won't.

If a nasty accident should ever occur involving me, the evidence is most likely within these pages, and tucked away safely elsewhere also.

I am happy for suggestions that don't involve me learning the art of contortion...so if you have a suggestion, just drop me a line and let me know...

If you have a story that needs telling, I can be contacted at wixyleaks@gmail.com

I have also been known to do some freelance work for various media outlets, so if you you are interested in having a chat along those lines, contact me at anytime.

Cheers

Wixxy
